Have you Explored a Canada Foundation for Innovation Lab at York University?

Here's your chance to talk to the people behind some of today's leading health, scientific and social sciences research.

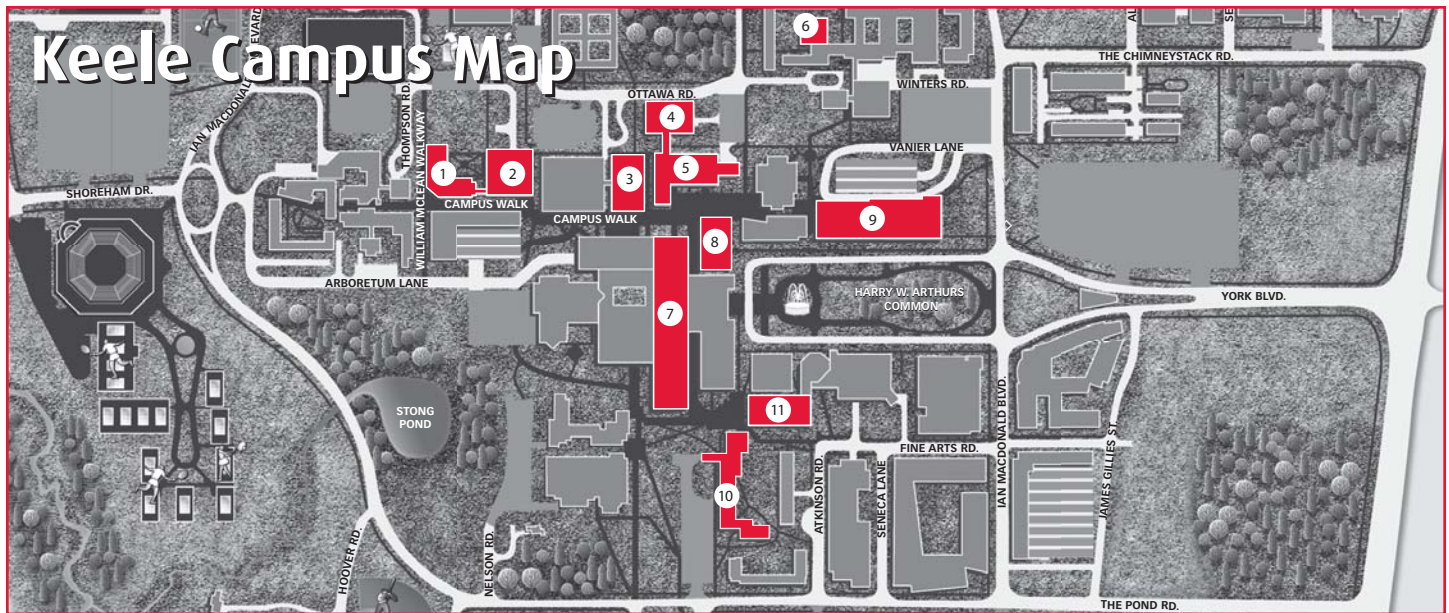

York University researchers funded by the Canada Foundation for Innovation (CFI) are opening their labs to you. This open house is part of CFI Day at York, celebrating CFI's 10th anniversary.

Come see how CFI's investments in equipment, laboratories and databases are transforming research at York and benefiting Canadians and the world.

Mapguides are available for you at:

- Bennett Centre for Student Services
- Lorna R. Marsden Info Centre
- Tait McKenzie Centre
- Info Desk in Vari Hall/Central Square
- Technology Enhanced Learning Building
- Bookstore, York Lanes
- Computer Science and Engineering Building
